

Employment Opportunity: Director of Infrastructure Services

The City of Ingleside is accepting applications for Director of Infrastructure Services. The Director of Infrastructure Services oversees the operations and providing leadership in managing the City's infrastructure assets including the maintenance and facility operations of the roads, water services, sanitary sewer services, drainage, parks, and emergency response for flood, severe weather mitigation. Work includes administrative and technical responsibility for all in-house and consultant design projects and studies. Work is performed with considerable independence within the framework of established procedures, City, and departmental policies. The Director of Infrastructure Services works under the supervision of the City Manager. Ability to create and plan long-term programs that will develop the growth of the community. Establishes specification for infrastructure projects.

Minimum qualifications require high school diploma or GED equivalent; Valid Texas Class "C" driver's license, Extensive knowledge of municipal public works, a minimum of ten (10) years of progressive management experience in the public sector setting.

Salary is range is $99,729.58-$124,661.98 DOE plus full benefit package. Application can be submitted to Human Resources, P.O. Drawer 400, Ingleside, Texas 78362, via email at HumanResources@InglesideTX.gov

Applications are available at Ingleside City Hall, 2671 San Angelo, between the hours of 8:00 AM and 5:00 PM or online HERE. Please contact Human Resources, at (361) 776-2517 to obtain additional information about this position. A negative pre-employment drug test and pre-employment physical are required as part the City of Ingleside employment process.

The City of Ingleside does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, national origin, sex, religion, age or disability, in employment or the provision of services and encourages anyone interested in this position to apply.

Ingleside desires diversity at all levels of its workforce!